General Description

Roland Picholine Olives are medium size and greenish. They have a tart flavor and are imported with the pit. Packed in a brine solution, they are a full bodied olive with a balanced flavor.

Preparation and Cooking Instructions

Roland Picholine Olives are used "as is" served as an ingredient in salads and as a garnish with cold meat and seafood. A popular accompaniment to pre-dinner cocktails and cold appetizers.

Benefits of Using This Product

Year round availability with uniform flavor, color and sizing allows the kitchen to retain tight quality control. Packed in pails, these olives have a shelf life of 12 months.

List of Ingredients

Olives, Water, Salt

Other Information

Roland Picholine Olives, in contrast to the more common "green" olives have a strong olive, woody flavor.

Suggested Uses

Roland Picholine Olives are used in buffets, as appetizers, on salad plates, as garnishes. They go well with fish, seafood. Marinate in olive oil, garlic and tarragon for a different taste.
